

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ACTIVITY

Create a visitor guide for someone to the Triad for an ACC baseball game!

- Create a visitor guide for someone visiting the Triad in either scrapbook format or as a brochure.

- In your guide, use only information that you find the News & Record. Use advertising for ideas for dining; use features and advertising for unique shops and points of interest; use maps that you may adapt for a walking tour of parts of the Triad area; use the weather page to get information about types of weather to be expected and unique geographical features of the city; use the business pages to find out about local industry or business centers that might be interesting to visit. Of course, you will also want to include special entertainment available in the area, in addition to the ACC baseball games!

- Look at the news pages of the News & Record for specific data about the local area that you might to use as information about the Triad. The history and culture of the Triad, along with interesting geographical features, are all good topics to be contained in a visitor guide.

- Be positive and inviting!

- Be prepared to present or display your final product.

Have you ever thought about the positive features and attractions of the Triad area?

Often, we do not appreciate the special characteristics and flavor of our hometown the way visitors do!

Your favorite ACC team may play host to many visitors in the area, including teams and sports fans. The News & Record can offer a great deal of information about the Triad area.

Visitors who come to visit or attend an ACC game area important to the area's economy since they spend their money on entertainment, lodging, food and many other items.
