ARRA grant supports water quality management planning activities in North Carolina. Specific activities are:

- o Continuation of water quality monitoring for planning, assessment, and reporting supporting 10 FTEs,
- o Special watershed sampling and analyses and stakeholder input activities in four watersheds of the French Broad and Little Tennessee River basins supporting 1 FTE; and
- o Passing through 40% ($285,760) to Regional Council of Governments to support seven water quality management planning projects.

Overviews of the pass-through projects:

- o Triangle J COG – Conducting a comprehensive water management study of the Neuse River Basin; including development of data for a comprehensive, long range water quantity and water quality plan that includes wastewater discharges, water withdrawals and considers assimilative capacity.
- o Western Piedmont COG – Creation of an education and awareness program concerning water efficiency, conservation and drought management (part of a more comprehensive regional water management plan) for the Catawba River basin.
- o Land of Sky Regional Council – Developing strategies to address identified water management issues and needs in the French Broad River basin.
- o Piedmont Triad COG – Developing an assessment of the Local Governments’ nutrient reduction capabilities and a Nutrient Reduction sourcebook. Creating an alliance of municipal, county & public water suppliers developing a cooperative water management plan for the Middle & Lower Cape Fear River basin.

10.00		The Division of Water Quality is using these Recovery Act dollars to support water quality management planning through data collection that otherwise would not have been possible. Ten positions are being sustained to provide analytical support, data collection, inspections and reporting throughout the state. One new position is being created to support watershed specific planning related activities. During this reporting period, which covers activities from the date of grant award until September 30, 2009, 10 full-time employees worked for 3 months. This equates to 10 FTE [(520 hours X 10 employees)/520 hours]. The new Division position and FTEs associated with the pass-through grants will be included in the next quarterly report as the paperwork for the new position is not complete and the pass-through grant awards were not completed until the week of September 23, 2009.
